GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Followers of the racing game and admirers of Capt. S. S. Brown, the Pittsburgh horseman, who has a large string of thoroughbreds, will be grieved to hear that a number of the Pittsburgh man's fine horses are seriously ill in the far south, says the Pittsburgh Dispatch. Peter Wimmer has written a friend that some of the good ones stabled at Mobile are in a bad way, but the nature of the disease is not given.

The Bascombe track at Mobile, where the Brown stable is wintering, was purchased by Captain Brown for a training track in the 80's. Here Troubadour was prepared for the Suburban, and Blue Wing, Senorita and others also wintered there. It is a full mile, and is one of the best parts of the Gulf City, on good ground, composed of a sandy loam. But for some years Captain Brown has not wintered any of his horses at Mobile. The last lot that spent the cold weather there came north too soon, with the rather enervating effects of the semi-tropical climate still in them. Nearly all caught cold and Captain Brown virtually shelved the Bascombe as a training ground. This winter the experiment has been tried again. If it fails again, it is safe to say that it will not be repeated.

Lon Bellew, who has charge of Gorman & Bauer's horses, says the string is doing finely at the farm, that he expects to have some real broad-winners in the three-year-old division this year, to say of one or two older ones that can win a week. The unbeaten Bardolph will be an important three-year-old.

east and west, including the American Derby, and his stable companion, Lem Redd, will also be well entered. Bellew says that Bardolph is a much improved horse and that he is growing grander every day. Preparations are now being made at the farm to take the string to Nashville about January 15, or at least as soon thereafter as the barn which is being constructed for them is ready.

The following two-year-olds of next year, bred by Dr. J. D. Neet, of Versailles, Ky., will be next year as the property of Sire & Neet, Leander Sire having bought a half interest.

Clifton Forge (half brother to Vincennes and Likeness), by Handsome—Illisee, by Baden Baden. Great Eastern (half brother to Ten Pins), br. c, by Handsome—Austerity, by Reform. Soson, ch. f, by Handsome—La Creole (sister in blood to Pentecost), by Spendthrift. Caviar (half sister to Caviar), br. f, by Handsome—Annie G., by Charaxus.

Seven Oaks, br. f, by Handsome—Message of Loudsbury.

John Fay has given his two-year-olds, now quartered at Memphis, the following names:

Henry Luehrmann Jr., b. c, by Golden Garter—

Barney Dreyfuss, b. c, by Dorian—Nonage. Ugly Ben, br. c, by Huron—Suisun. Ed Tierney, b. c, by Montana—Loo. Gloomy Gus, b. c, by Dorian—Martine. Lady Bountiful, b. f, by Handsome—Miss Hera. Morning Star, b. f, by Loyalist—Satellite. Dolly Varden, b. f, by Inspector B.—Piazza. Black Eyes, b. f, by Tithonus—Inspectress.

An eastern exchange says horses in training at Sheephead Bay were given a taste of the snow last Monday. The course was covered to the depth of four inches, and a majority of the trainers took their charges out for a gallop through it.

That the horses thoroughly enjoyed the snow and the nipping weather was evidenced by their actions. They were buck jumping and full of play and put the exercise boys on their mettle to keep them under control.

Frank McCabe had out a string of youngsters from the Perry Belmont barn, headed by the $20,000 two-year-old, River Pirate. They made the circuit of the track and scampered through the snow in a lively way.

The old American Derby winner, Sidney Lucas, which Frank Frisbie believes will stand training again next season, was out with a couple of youngsters from the same barn. Sidney Lucas was as lively as the youngsters. He is in great shape at present, and the belief of his owner and trainer that he will race again seems well founded.

Thomas Digney, who trained the horses of F. J. Lantry last season, will handle a public stable the coming year. Two youngsters arrived at the Gravesend track Monday which will join his stable. One is by Wagner and the other by Star Ruby. Both are good lookers. He expects another lot next week.

Barney Schreiber has refused an offer of $30,000 from E. J. Arnold for his great young stallion Sain, and reports that it will take $100,000 to tempt him to part with the son of St. Serf—The Task. Sain is one of the most remarkable stallions for his years in American breeding annals, with Otis, Corrigan, Schwalbe, Zirl, Sylvia Talbot and other good horses to his credit, and bids fair to head the "winning stallions" list of this country before long.

John Wallace, secretary for P. J. Gorman, the Cincinnati turfman, arrived in Lexington Monday to look over the yearling brown filly, Blue, bred by Rainbow—The Brown Countess, by that is engaged in over $150,000 worth of breeding the Futurity. Colonel Barnes is only the running quality of the youngster.

This trick received a special prep, worked great guns and is in the finest condition possible. There is only one chance in a hundred of him losing as he outclasses his field by a sixteenfold of a mile.

Remember in the forty days' racing at Ingleside we put 31 long shots over the plate and we consider this trick for today as good as anything ever cut loose at the meeting. We also have the winner of the two-year-old race, a highly tried filly and a quick breaker, worked 3-8 mile in 35. This is fully two seconds faster than any youngster at the coast. Above all, don't miss this golden opportunity to enrich yourselves from real good information. P. S. Wednesday's advertised record breaker will go Saturday, providing the track is fast.
